

Care instructions

Kalanchoe

Watering

Allowing slight drying between waterings is ideal. Depending on whether the plant is placed in light or darkness it should be watered every week or every second week.

Placement

Tolerates both direct sunlight and shade. Note that when placed in direct sunlight, the colour of the flowers may become more intense over time, while the leaves may develop a reddish hue.

Read more and find other care instructions, waste sorting guides, and much more at www.queenflowers.dk

